

Self-Employed Persons Program

The Self-employed Persons Program allows people to immigrate to Canada permanently as a self-employed person.

If you're interested in this program, you must:

- ❖ have relevant experience in cultural activities or athletics and
- ❖ be willing and able to make a significant contribution to the cultural or athletic life of Canada

Eligibility

To immigrate as a self-employed person, you must:

- ❖ have relevant experience
- ❖ be willing and able to be self-employed in Canada
- ❖ meet the program's selection criteria and
- ❖ meet medical, security and other conditions

Relevant experience (means at least two years of experience)

Your experience is relevant if you have:

- ❖ taken part in cultural activities or athletics at a world-class level or
- ❖ been a self-employed person in cultural activities or athletics

Selection criteria

We assess you on selection criteria that include your:

- ❖ experience
- ❖ education
- ❖ age
- ❖ language abilities
- ❖ adaptability

Medical, security checks and other requirements

You and your family members must have a medical exam and get police certificates. You must also show that you have enough money to support yourself and your family after you get to Canada.

Business plan is not a mandatory requirement but it can significantly reinforce your application!
